

- Soil water storage is active
- No rainfall, therefore, no surface runoff partitioning module is activated
- No groundwater parameters, except `max_gw_storage`, contributes to the gradient chain because the ground water storage is too small with CFE/NWM default parameters (range=(0.01, 0.25) [m]) so that all the groundwater storage are drained immediately

